"The EOC was very happy with the way KWC discharged its responsibilities. They did a good job of on-line registrations. There were no glitches and the delegates had no complaints whatsoever. The accommodation arrangements were done well and the reception of the delegates at the airport and their transportation to and from the hotels were handled well. The opening and closing functions went off smoothly. The volunteers hired and trained by KWC did a good job. Our guests in general were highly appreciative of the organisational efforts and much of this should go to KWC."
